CONCERNING THE GAME.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

By "Wideawake."

Looking like animated barbers' poles, numbers of small boys wearing red and white hooped jerseys and knickers cavorted along Flinders-street and into the station premises on Saturday evening.

* * *

They were the advance party of South Melb. barrackers, who whooped with joy. So all round for Southerners it was whoops and hoops.

* * *

The whoops were justified by the afternoon's play at East Melbourne, for South had made good and Essendon had again been beaten.

* * *

But there is this to be said of the defeated side—that their play was as different from their form against Carlton as it was possible to be. Against South Melbourne Essendon did great work, and it must not be forgotten that two of their stars—Busbridge and Belcher, who have rightly been dubbed the "brilliant Busy Bees"—were not of the team, owing to injuries.

* * *

Yes, Essendon went down with the flag flying.

* * *

It was a good honest hard game, remarkably fast on going that was muddy, heavy and slippery after the morning's teeming rain, which, by the way, ceased after noon, and so obviated the necessity for considering the question whether there should be any play in the afternoon.

Essendon looked like winners for the first three quarters, but the honours for the final term, which have usually been claimed for the 'Dons, were decidedly South Melbourne's. They crowded the game, and a packed and desperate series of finishing rushes gained the day for them. In that quarter Essendon scored one behind; South Melbourne registered 3 goals 2 behinds.

* * *

When time was called South Melbourne had won by two goals, the scores being 9.10 against Essendon's 7.10. In the previous match Essendon kicked one goal more than South. They were rather unlucky on Saturday, for once in the second quarter, and again in the last, goals were missed by the proverbial coat of paint, the post having been hit. Then South's final goal was the result of a free kick right in front, Milne having been offended against by his opponent, who pushed him.

* * *

So, you see, had the ball just gone an inch or two further in, and had Milne not been shoved, we might have seen another draw to a spiritedly contested game. Yet the decisive manner in which South mastered the situation in the concluding quarter entitled them to the win, for half-way through the term Essendon were a beaten side.

* * *

One remarkable feature of the South-Essendon match was that nearly all the goals were the result of snapshots.

* * *

The umpiring in the big match on Saturday was a decided improvement on Murphy's exhibition at Carlton. But he was clearly at fault on two occasions, when he whistled ball up for each time it had been taken clear from the scrimmages.

On general play Collingwood made a creditable show against Carlton, but the want of a reliable forward was again the rock on which they were wrecked. Carlton was strong where the magpies were weak, and down goes another victory to the credit of Carlton among the records of the historian.

Richmond held their own in the out-field against Fitzroy, but in "the little things that count"—shots for the points—they were astray, and Fitzroy's goal-getter, Freake, having his foot nicely adjusted for the day, the maroons were in excellent trim, and raked in 41 points more than fell to the Richmond basket.

St. Kilda were in winning humour from the moment the umpire set the game going, and led the 'Varsity students a merry dance. A pile of points was built up, and, although University rallied splendidly in the final quarter, there was not the ghost of a chance of their winning. The Saints were the only century makers of the day—102 pts. to 'Varsity's 50.

The Melbourne and Geelong match was a peculiar one. The Pivot lads seemed certain winners in the first half, but fell off lamentably afterwards.

Melbourne's play in the first two quarters was just as bad as it was good in the concluding stages. The last quarter was Melbourne's best. They kept Geelong hard at it right throughout the 25 minutes, which was productive of the only excitement during the afternoon.

Altogether Geelong's display was disappointing. There was no excuse for their falling off in the second half, and they will have to show much better form to beat Essendon this afternoon.

In the first quarter of the Essendon-South match Murphy, the umpire, had the ball changed. Onlookers thought that it was collapsing, but apparently it was not, for on Tuesday evening Essendon used the same ball at practice, and I am told it had not been blown up since Murphy had it changed. Anyhow, it would have been better for the umpire to have submitted the ball to both captains, and not to have taken it upon himself to adjudge it unsuitable for service.

* * *

During an inquiry on Wednesday night at the League's rooms it was asserted that some horribly objectionable language has been used in a match. Nothing was proved, however, but the president (Mr. A. McCracken) expressed the opinion that if such words were used the man who uttered them should not be permitted to play football. I agree entirely with that opinion, and would suggest that more attention should be paid by umpires to the matter, for decent players have frequently complained of the common use of an expression that would justify anybody in knocking down the fellows who employ such to insult opponents.

Apparently the recovery of his form has come to stay with J. McHale, the Collingwood captain. He shared with Jim Sadler the honours of the game against Carlton as far as the magpies were concerned.

The Men of the Time in the Essendon-South match:—South: Russick, Milne, Franks, Caldwell, Scobie, Thomas, Hiskens, Sloss, Prince. Essendon's: Hanley, Ogden, Kirby, Shea, Sewart, Chalmers, Cameron, Bowe and Baring.

J. Scobie, South Melbourne.

Billy Burns and Sheehan were not among the unemployed at Fitzroy. They worked as hard as any two men in the metropolis on that afternoon. Sheehan gave an exhibition of his speed in the final term, taking the ball almost from goal to goal.

Moran was a brisk and bustling forward for Carlton at Collingwood, and Gordon Green proved his worth as a rover once again, while that little gem Andy McDonald, performed brilliantly. He rarely does anything else nowa days.

THE FOOTBALL RECORD.

Billy Dick gave a brilliant exhibition of high marking at Collingwood. The Carlton half-back was as sure and safe as a well-built stone wall. The crowd was delighted—friend and foe alike—with his performance.

Usually on a wet day L. Armstrong is a shining star for Essendon, but there was not much brilliance about his play on Saturday. He was handicapped by the duties of captain and the absence of Belcher.

P. Martini, Geelong.

Decidedly hard luck for Richmond, and a severe misfortune for their captain, was the collision in the second quarter of the Fitzroy match. Result—a fractured rib. This was his first match since the shoulder injury he sustained several weeks ago.

One of the most striking features in Boxer Milne's superb ruck work against the 'Dons was his wonderful hitting out on the throw-in. He has developed the knack of the "back-handed larrup" to perfection, and directs the ball to his rover with remarkable certainty.

The honours of the ruck work at Collingwood were with Les Hughes. He hit out to his rover with remarkable accuracy.

It was a mistake on the part of Collingwood to have played Lowe on Saturday. On Thursday his ankle was injured, and the first time he got the ball on Saturday the trouble again manifested itself. So Collingwood practically had to play a strong side like Carlton with 17 men.

* * *

Challis was concerned in what might be fitly termed a "ripping" game. He was covered with confusion as his trousers broke from their moorings, and a new pair had to be hurriedly supplied. The robing room was the centre of the field, with a cordon of players standing round to stave of the chilling blast of winter while the quick-change act was performed.

MEN OF THE TIME.

PLAYERS AND PEOPLE TALKED ABOUT.

By "Chatterer."

I do not think there was a more disappointed man at East Melbourne on Saturday than Allan Belcher, the Essendon captain—I mean before the match, for after the battle there were thousands. The skipper was unable to play owing to a breakage of the little toe of his kicking foot. This was caused by an accidental kick during the Carlton match.

The popularity of Billy Griffith was demonstrated at East Melbourne, for when the ex-captain made his reappearance and took his old place 'tween goals he was accorded such a cheer that was comforting and sportsmanlike.

Busbridge was a spectator at East Melbourne on Saturday, and held quite a levee. At half-time he strolled across to the dressing-room of his team, and on the way the crowd cheered him to the echo. Subscription lists for the testimonial to be given to him now that he has retired from the game which he so grandly played were issued on Saturday, and are filling rapidly. The Essendon club has led with a donation of 25 guineas.

Charlie Ricketts, the South Melbourne captain, and Casey were limping during the game, as the result of ricked leg sinews. In the third quarter Rick was unable to advance for the ball when straight in front of goal, but Franks was handy, and, grabbing the leather, drove it through.

Mortimer forward, Mortimer back—it was all the same, for this determined and much-buffed player battled as persistently as any man on the side.

In the third quarter at East Melbourne the two forwards, Kirby and Mortimer, were opposed, but at that time Mortimer was back. In a racing go for the ball Mortimer tried to shoulder Kirby off, but went down himself, and his head came crack against the fence. But a little thing like that does not trouble Mortimer, who gathered himself together, hunched his shoulders, and was off and away into the thick of it before you could say "Jack Robinson."

The order of the goal-kicking at East Melbourne: Kirby, Franks, Kirby, Kirby, Kirby, Mortimer, Kirkwood, Russick, Milne, Kirby, Casey, Ogden, Franks, Casey, Russick, Milne.

Although they only scored three goals Richmond claim that they could not be more genuine. They were kicked by Hall, and consequently were considered "Hall marked." Six of Fitzroy's were Freake's.

The St. Kilda supporters were delighted with the work of Morrissey against the 'Varsity. He was a wonderful force in the ruck, where Cumberland was also in rare fettle.

Nothing could be better than the three goals scored by young Best for St. Kilda. They were three of the best.

As a centre line, taking the whole match, South—Caldwell, Mullally and Prince—rather badly beat their opponents at East Melb., although there were flashes of smart work by Sewart and Chalmers in the early stages of the game.

ADDRESS

54 MARKET ST., MELBOURNE

No two men worked with greater assiduity for University against St. Kilda than Jack Brake, one of the season's best ruck men, and George Elliott, their captain.

* * *

Orchard, either forward or in the centre, played finely for Geelong. Joe Slater received a nasty fall in the second quarter, which kept him quieter than usual for the best part of the afternoon. Heinz did a lot of fine work, and helped his side out of many difficulties.

* * *

Scown did good work on the wing, but made the mistake of running a bit too far. Captain Eason was the best of the forwards, where Len Martin and Martini also shone at intervals.

* * *

Tomkins redeemed himself last Saturday. Against South Melbourne he was not nearly so brilliant as he was on Saturday, when Geelong found him a hard nut to crack.

* * *

The pick of the thirty-six at the Melbourne ground, so far as the placed men were concerned, was little McKenzie, whose bright flashes on the wing evoked rounds of applause.

Melb. were well served by a powerful ruck in Allan, who gave the reds his best game, and Hendrie. Politz, as change rover, was resourceful, and is a coming star. Bristow, Naismith, Fitzpatrick, Purse, Brereton and Monk all did well.

* * *

Wally Johnson was in his element at Fitzroy (half-forward and in defence), his high sky-scraping marks earning for him such applause that made the welkin ring almost to the cracking point.

* * *

Those two gallant Richmond ruck men, Herbert and James, held their own at Fitzroy and worked together like machinery.

* * *

Another great game was played by McGregor, the Carlton centre. He is in rare form now, and when Wee Mac is in form there are not many whose play is more artistic and entertaining to watch.

* * *

Jack Green, the speedy half-back of Collingwood, eclipsed Challis on Saturday. The performance was a particularly fine feather in the magpie man's cap.

The BEST and only the BEST !

WHAT CHAMPIONS REQUIRE.

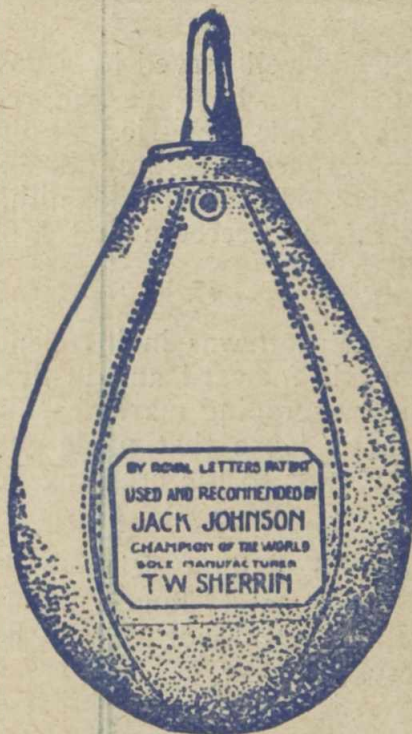

It is only natural that for the great and glorious Australian game the best of Australian goods should be manufactured by the best Australian maker.

T.W. SHERRIN

Acknowledged by all sporting institutions and champions,

BOXING, CRICKET, and FOOTBALL,

as the leading manufacturer of Australia. Testimonials as to the superiority of his sporting goods have been unhesitatingly given by the world's champions who have visited Australia from time to time during the last twenty years.

JACK JOHNSON, the world's champion pugilist, pronounces Sherrin's boxing gloves and punching balls better than any he has used in England or America. And the champion has used many in fighting his way to fame.

DICK LEE, who was for years the champion goal-kick, bears testimony to the superiority of the Sherrin ball.

The Footballers' Favorite.

The footballer has yet to be found who does not give the palm to the Sherrin ball as the best that can be kicked. The "Kangaroo" brand on each is the trade mark registered throughout the Commonwealth.

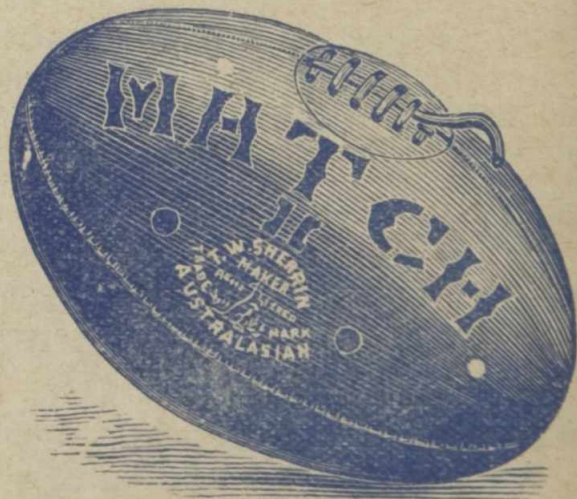

League clubs prefer the "Kangaroo" brand, and no club is considered complete without its supply of Sherrin's best.

THE AUSTRALASIAN FOOTBALL COUNCIL.

ever since the Interstate matches have been played have insisted on the use of the "Kangaroo" brand ball, and in the great carnival in Adelaide last year the pleasure of the players was increased by the knowledge that they were using balls from the Sherrin factory.

SHERRIN'S ATHLETIC GOODS

have won distinction at international and Interstate industrial exhibitions, among the awards being the Prize Medal and First Order of Merit in Adelaide, 1881; First Order of Merit, Melbourne, 1879-80; and the Diploma of Merit, Centennial Exhibition, 1888-89.

Obtainable at all the leading Sporting-goods Warehouses throughout Australia.

L. Martini, the Geelong goal-shooter, was disqualified by the League's investigation committee on Wednesday night for four matches for having struck Bob Monk, of the Melbourne team, during the progress of last Saturday's match. This spiking of their big gun will mean a big handicap to the Pivottians.

V. G. Valentino, J. Wells (Carlton); J. W. Green, L. H. Hughes, P. Gibb (Collingwood); E. Cameron, L. Bowe, W. Sewart (Essendon); J. Cooper, H. Lenne, P. Parratt (Fitzroy); J. Slater (Geelong); W. Thomas, J. Prince, B.

Following are Victoria's Men of the Time for the return match against S.A. in Adelaide on August 10:—G. Challis, Sloss (South Melbourne); W. Eicke, W. Schmidt (St. Kilda); J. Brake (University). The team are requested to meet on Monday night at 8 o'clock at the League rooms. They will probably have a run together on the Melbourne ground next Thursday.

THE FOOTBALL RECORD.

Dick Grigg took some fine marks on Saturday, remindful of his best days two years ago. Geelong supporters would be glad to see the one-time champion at his top again, and he appears to be playing himself up to that standard. L. Armstrong was sound in defence, and Pender also played well.

THE VERY LATEST.

Fairbairn takes Martini's place in Geelong's team this afternoon.

Dave Greenham and Milne replace Graham and Lang in University's 18.

Fitzroy will have McLennan in the centre again to-day. Scott is also playing again. Laver and Wells are standing down.

Melbourne will to-day rely on the same 18 that defeated Geelong.

Belcher is not able to play for Essendon this afternoon. O'Shea (injured thigh) has been replaced by Worle.

St. Kilda's alterations are the substitution of Doolan and Baird for McKenzie and White.

Wilson and Valentine play in place of Jamieson and Bowen for Carlton to-day.

Ohlsen and Jones will be out of Richmond's team this afternoon. A new man in Walker and Bennie will be included.

Abbott will play his first game for South Melbourne to-day. Ricketts' injured leg prevents him from taking the field.

Seddon and Gilchrist are in Collingwood's 18 in place of Lowe and Ambler.
